

Meet Office Aubrey and Officer Noah

Meet Officer Aubrey, a proud twenty-year veteran of the New York City Police Department, who was born in New York, NY, and raised in Queens. Throughout his distinguished law enforcement career, he has been part of many significant achievements, with the most notable being his contribution to the great reduction of crime in NYC during his two-decade tenure.

About six and a half years ago, Officer Aubrey chose to join the Unity School community, drawn by the amazing staff, students, and the unbelievable warmth he feels every day as he walks through the gates. He believes that Unity School's security team stands out due to its wealth of experience, expertise, and the continuous flow of updated intelligence that keeps the community safe.

Fun Fact: Officer Aubrey's first-ever security assignment was protecting two jazz legends, Ray Charles and John Lee Hooker!

Meet Officer Noah, one of the friendly faces you may see around Unity School every day. Growing up in North Dakota with his family, he developed a love for adventure that led him to join the United States Marine Corps. His time in the military allowed him to travel the world and create memories that will last a lifetime. One of his proudest accomplishments was serving as a squad leader for his Infantry Platoon, where he guided and mentored junior Marines.

Officer Noah feels that Unity School chose him as much as he chose it. A year into his role, he thoroughly enjoys his job and the school community.

He believes that what sets Unity School's security apart is the direct communication with the Delray Beach Police Department and a rapid emergency response system that ensures the safety of everyone on campus.

Fun Fact: Officer Noah and his family are huge sports fans! His favorite teams are the Green Bay Packers for football and the Minnesota Twins for baseball.
